

~THE~ BROOKLYN SUGAR STOMPERS

-Hot Jazz & Rusty Blues from the 1920's & 30's-

Vocalist and Bandleader, Miss Cara (Dineen), sets the stage as a whimsical flapper singing new life into dusty old tunes pressed onto vinyl over 100 years ago. If you're lucky enough to catch them live, brace yourself for high-energy tempos and dynamic interpretations. Their performance recently called a "Home Run" by Don Spiro at CLUB WIT'S END, The Brooklyn Sugar Stompers will get your gams out on the floor and your heart stompin' with them in no time. They are a perfect homage to Jazz's Golden Age: the 1920's. With a youthful 'Joie de Vivre', The Brooklyn Sugar Stompers are attempting to bring Gatsby Gilded Lenses to this century's New Yorkers, one song at a time.

From Special Events for COCO CHANEL, to Dinner Parties for GQ MAGAZINE, and Special Occasions for the GRAMMERCY PARK HOTEL, and Sleep No More's 'The MCKITTRICK HOTEL', The Brooklyn Sugar Stompers are taking the cake (and big apple) by storm with their imaginative arrangements, technical jazz prowess and extraordinary group of musical characters.
